Hot Chocolate Friday

We strongly believe in recognising positive behaviour in our school. The idea of Hot Chocolate Friday is for the Headteacher/Depute to invite a learner who has gone 'over and above' during the week to share a hot drink and a chat together. It's an opportunity to spend time with members of the school who get on quietly but don't always get the recognition they deserve. And what better way to end the working week than with your hands around a mug of warm, comforting chocolate!

The idea first came about a few years ago from ask@pivotaleducation.com (Pivotal Education Behaviour Specialists). There are now lots of schools across the UK spending time recognising the 'over and above' behaviour of those who might otherwise be forgotten.
