A new school year means another year of drama productions! The pantomime 2024 is Snow White, directed and written by Casey King. It has been casted, with Hailey Morris as our leading lady Snow and Sam Wilkinson as the esteemed Prince, and Finley Bailey making a return for the dame, Nurse Nicola. Make sure to keep calendars free for the 17th of December! Tickets will be limited and the price is TBA. There will also be some fundraising going on so keep a lookout for that. Drama club is also back, with a new theatre-of-the-absurd play called Us and Them by David Campton, which was only recently casted, with Susanna Inglis as the Recorder. They will be performing at the SCDA festival next year and are looking to once again bring home the title of Fife district champions, like they did last year with their production of Julius Caesar.
