

Belonging • Experiences • Aspirations • Teamwork • Honesty

Every year the music department puts on a Christmas show. It started back up last year and they plan to put on another this year. The show not only has pupils from every year demonstrating what they do in class but also has a variety of instruments that are taught at beath such as... Wind band, strings, piano, percussion and many more.