THIS WEEK'S LEARNING NEWS

This week in Room 10...

- We had our WWII showcase and the P7's did a fabulous job!
- We continued with our Time topic in Numeracy.
- We also focused on Haiku poetry for Literacy and themed it around a story from our showcase 'The Winter Soldier'.
- We focused on Tim Burton inspired art this week too, looking at the unique features the illustrator uses for his films.

What we got up to!

P7 – Primary 7 had a great week with their classwork and showcase rehearsals.

Numeracy – We continued to look at Time in numeracy this week. We focused on durations and looked at various time tables. We worked out how long each journey would take and counted in hours and minutes. We also revised to the hour. We looked at division with carrying and remainders. We had to recall our prior learning for division to correctly lay out our sums and show all our working.

Literacy – P7 focused on poetry in Writing this week. We took inspiration from our showcase on Tuesday and wrote Haiku poems from the perspective of a WWII soldier. We thought about our senses whilst ensuring we followed the 5-7-5 syllable rule. We also created our own paragraphs in daily writing, thinking about description, adding adjectives, and upgrading our verbs/vocabulary.

Art – We looked at Tim Burton and his illustrations used in his movies. Taking inspiration from the likes of Corpse Bride, The Nightmare before Christmas and Frankenweenie, we were able to create our own self portraits in the style of a Tim Burton character. (Photos on the next slide).
