Handling Children's Behaviour

Come along and join us for our 6-week informal, free programme starting on:

Tuesday 19th February 2019: 6.30pm-8.30pm

This course will help support Mums, Dads and other Adults build positive relationships with their children. The course will cover building confidence, understanding the three broad categories of behaviour and how to manage them more effectively. Previous participants have found this course to be very beneficial and have enjoyed meeting and discussing child development with other parents!
