

ROOM 11 LEARNING LOWDOWN

28th of March 2025

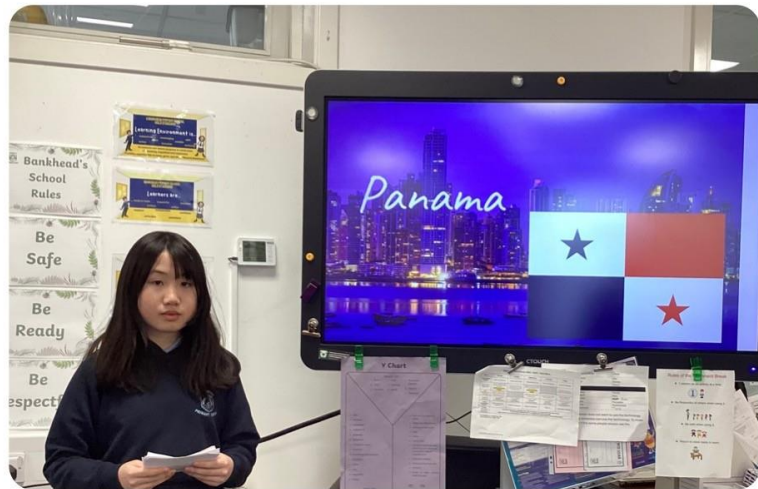

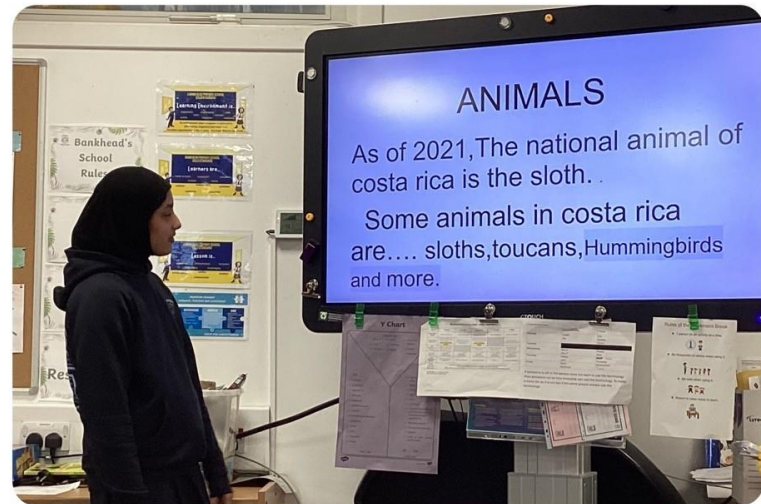

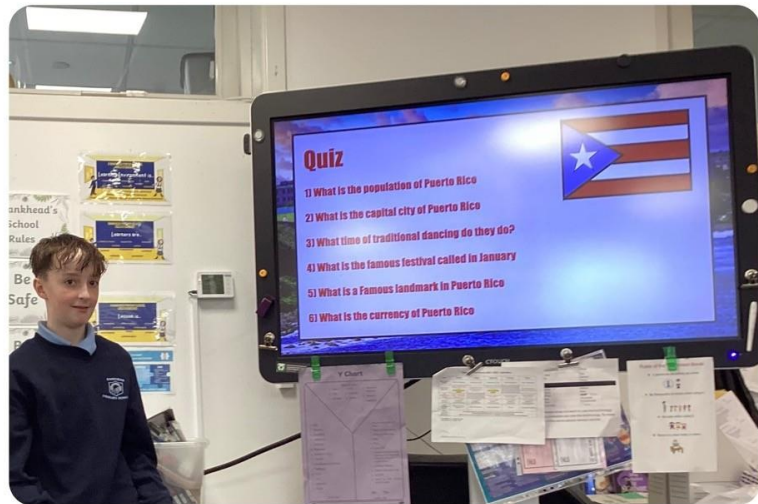

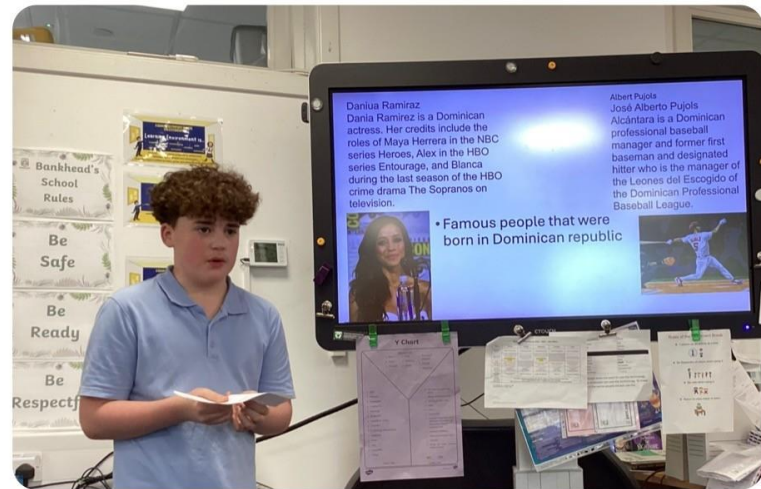

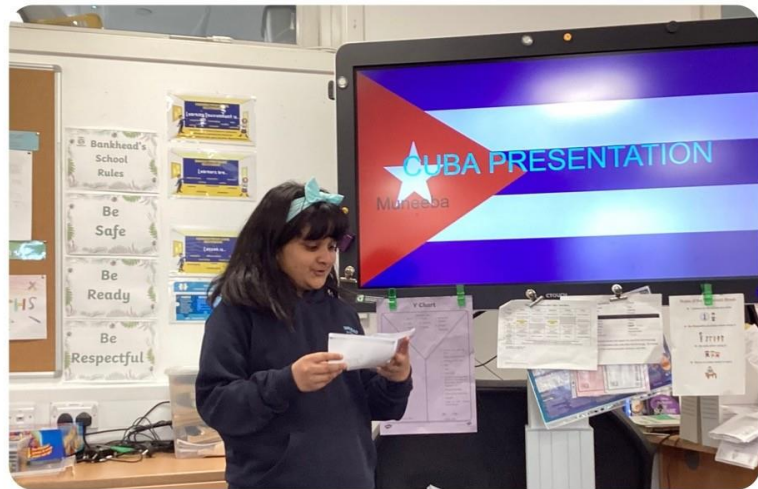

THIS WEEK'S LEARNING NEWS

Over the past week in Room 11.....

- We delivered Solo Talks about a Spanish speaking country.
- In Maths, we were calculating percentages without using a calculator.
- We had lots of fun doing parachute games and 'Prisoner' in PE.
- We created flowers for the Easter church service next week.
- We read our Scots stories to the P1s.
- We have read more chapters of Divided City.
- We prepared our work for Parents' Evening.
- Some of us presented the dance we have been learning with Mrs McCusker at assembly.

Bankhead will SOAR!

ASK US ABOUT..

- What country we researched for our Solo Talk.
- How our Solo Talk went.
- What we did at Fri-Play.
- Calculating percentages without using a calculator.

WHAT WAS CHALLENGING

- Not using a calculator and showing all of our working for percentages.
- Presenting our Solo Talks – some of us were nervous.

SUCCESS - OPPORTUNITY - ACTIVE - RESPECT

NEXT STEPS/TARGETS

We will be...

- Having a visit from the Guidance Department at Stonelaw High School.
- Finishing off Solo Talks about a Spanish speaking country.
- Starting Exposition Writing.
- Reading more Divided City.
- Having our final Fri-Play session then we will be moving onto Skills School after the Easter break.
