

ROOM 11 LEARNING LOWDOWN

WEEK BEGINNING 29TH APRIL 2024

THIS WEEK'S LEARNING NEWS

This week in Room 11.....

- SNSA – at ICT we completed assessments on writing, reading and numeracy.
- We started our new topic 'Scottish Parliament'.
- We learned about a famous Spanish artist called Salvador Dali.
- We are almost finished our exposition writing about "Should Every Classroom Have a Pet?"
- We are up to chapter 3 of Kensuke's Kingdom which ended dramatically because Michael fell off the boat into the water with his pet dog Stella.

Bankhead will SOAR!

ASK US ABOUT..

- Buddy Lunch
- Buddy Reading and Daily Mile
- Our new topic 'Scottish Parliament'
- Kensuke's Kingdom
- Fri-Play
- Angles, the volume formula, function machines and reading scales.

WHAT WAS CHALLENGING

Some of us found

- SNSAs.
- Discussing sectarianism
- Stereotypes
- Reading scales and converting ml into l.

SUCCESS - OPPORTUNITY - ACTIVE - RESPECT

NEXT STEPS/TARGETS

Next we will be...

- Choosing 5 people to share a room with for Inverclyde.
- Learning about how laws are created.
- Working with Mrs Urquhart on Vex-Go

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- School closed on Monday the 6th of May.
- 2 weeks on Monday until our residential trip to Inverclyde.

PHOTO GALLERY

