Remember '?' at the end.	Reading Look at the slideshow on GC: "Mrs Donald Rhino PPT" We are going to try and write a persuasive piece pf writing. We have done this once before when we came up with a letter to send to Mr Hamill about why we should bring golden time back. Do you remember? In a persuasive letter, you are trying to convince someone why your opinion (what you think) is right. First start with what you think: "I think we need to save the rhinos because" Then give another reason for this.... remember we came up with all the good reasons for having golden time? Then finish with a finishing statement, restating your opinion. This is tricky, so I am going to ask an adult to help you quite a lot here! In the class I would probably help you form the sentences, then give you it to do with some missing words. Choose from the "Mrs Donald persuasive worksheets" which one you would like to do.	Spelling: Get an adult to test you on your words this week. No peeking! Handwriting: Watch: Mrs Donald (Handwriting) video Complete next letter as shown. Grammar: We are going to look at compound words this week. A compound word is a word made up of two words put together. Can you think of any? Look at the slideshow "Mrs Donald: Compound words" on Google Classroom Complete Studyladder pod "Mrs Donald compound word activity"
