Summer Programme 2024

Creative Writing for The Planet

FREE

Immerse yourself in our empowering Creative Writing for the Planet workshop, where Rachelle Atalla, author of 'Thirsty Animals' will guide you in crafting stories of hope in the midst of climate change. Taking action not only alleviates eco-anxiety but also catalyzes positive change. This workshop will offer a fresh perspective on the planet's crisis, transforming your eco-anxiety into narratives of optimism.
