Dear Parents/Carers,

REMOTE LEARNING: WEEK 9
TOWARD BLENDED LEARNING

We have reached the end of our last week of Remote Learning. I want to thank all pupils, parents and carers for your work and support in the most difficult of circumstances. I understand how challenging this has been but I am pleased that the situation seems to be moving in a positive direction. Pupils will start their return to school at various points next week and we hope that all pupils will return full time after the Easter holidays.

All pupils should now know when they are to attend school, and should have received personalised timetables through the post. I will take the opportunity to remind you that all pupils should wear full school uniform (except those attending for PE) and bring a fully charged iPad to school.

Please note that while young people will have meaningful work to complete whilst at home, the nature of the remote learning offer will be different over the next three weeks.

As promised, I have collated all the necessary information on Blended Learning into one document, which is available on our website and can be found here. Whilst much of this has been communicated in recent letters, there is some new information. I encourage all parents and pupils to read this carefully. It will remain on the website should you need to refer to it at any point over the next three weeks.

This has been a very long nine weeks but we are very much looking forward to welcoming our children back to school. As always, please contact myself, Pastoral Care or year group heads if there is anything we can do to further support you.

Yours faithfully,

Jonathan Graham
