

Primary 7 Home Learning Grid

Hot

Reading/ spelling	Writing	Maths	Health & wellbeing	Other areas
Complete a 'Three Sharings' poster on your novel. Comment on Likes/ dislikes, puzzles and connections. .	Functional – Research rationing recipes and create your own for a typical family meal during WW2.	Use a rationing recipe to record the weight of different ingredients required. Can you calculate the ingredients needed for a family of 4?	Make your own Kickstart circuit in your home and teach a family member how to take part. Lead a warm up, stations and cool down.	Science Experiment with floating and sinking objects. Note down the materials you find that float and sink.
Read or listen to a section of an audio book. Create a range of literal, inferential and evaluative questions. (2 of each).	Personal Write a Postcard from a holiday or trip you've been on in the past. What were your highlights? How did you feel? What will you remember?	Design a board game that develops a maths skill. E.g multiplication. Design and create the parts needed for the game and play it with a family member.	Create a 'Care in the Sun' poster for a younger sibling or family friend. Give them hints and tips of how to be safe in the sun.	French Compare and contrast school life in France to school life in Scotland. Make a Venn diagram of differences and similarities.
Create a diary entry of a character from a text. Write in first person and include thoughts and feelings they may have.	Imaginative Create a poem about Spring. It can be acrostic, a sense poem, haiku or rhyming. Think about your favourite things about Spring. E.g daffodils, lambs.	Can you research the number of planes that were used during the Battle of Britain? E.g Hurricane, Spitfire, BF 109. Can you create a graph that shows the number of each type of British plane? Use an appropriate scale. You could do this on paper or on an app e.g Numbers.	Practice mindfulness. Can you create your own mindfulness colouring sheet, or if you have a colouring book at home take some time to relax and colour it in.	Art Design your own Easter egg using exciting pattern, line and colour.
Create your own dictionary of words you find tricky to spell. Can you include a trick to remember them?	Journal Create a writing journal entry on a topic of your choice. Use colour coding (like the Editing Rainbow) to edit any errors or improvements.	If you can access Hit The Button, use this website to practice quick fire mental calculations. https://www.topmarks.co.uk/maths-games/hit-the-button	Try a new skill. Something that you haven't had an opportunity to explore or something that a family member is talented/ experienced in. Evaluate your progress.	Topic Research the different aircrafts used by Britain during WW2. Can you sketch and label some of the different aircrafts?

Primary 7 Home Learning Grid - Hot Hot

Reading/ spelling	Writing	Maths	Health & wellbeing	Other areas
Complete a 'Three Sharings' poster on your novel. Comment on Likes/ dislikes, puzzles and connections. .	Functional – Research rationing recipes and create your own for a typical family meal during WW2. Include time connectives, imperative (bossy verbs).	Use a rationing recipe to record the weight of different ingredients required. Can you calculate the ingredients needed for a family of 6? Can you convert these to grams/ kilograms?	Make your own Kickstart circuit in your home and teach a family member how to take part. Lead a warm up, stations and cool down.	Science Experiment with floating and sinking objects. Make predictions about different objects/ materials. Note down your findings about each.
Read or listen to a section of an audio book. Create a range of literal, inferential and evaluative questions. (4 of each). www.worldbook.kitaboo.com is now a free resource.	Personal Write a Postcard from a holiday or trip you've been on in the past. What were your highlights? How did you feel? What will you remember?	Design a board game that develops a maths skill. E.g decimals or place value. Design and create the parts needed for the game and play it with a family member.	Create a 'Care in the Sun' poster for a younger sibling or family friend. Give them hints and tips of how to be safe in the sun, including facts and statistics, text and images.	French Compare and contrast school life in France to school life in Scotland. Make a Venn diagram of differences and similarities and a concluding evaluation that outlines the similarities and differences.
Create a diary entry of a character from a text. Write in first person and include: thoughts, feelings, detailed recount of events and appropriate description.	Imaginative Create a poem about Spring. It can be acrostic, a sense poem, haiku or rhyming. Think about your favourite things about Spring. E.g daffodils, lambs. Create at least 3 verses for your poem.	Can you research the number of planes British and German planes that were used during the Battle of Britain? E.g Hurricane, Spitfire, Luftwaffe, Messerschmit Bf 109. Can you create a comparative graph that shows the number of each type of plane? Use an appropriate scale and key. You could do this on paper or on an app e.g Numbers.	Practice mindfulness. Can you create your own mindfulness colouring sheet, or if you have a colouring book at home take some time to relax and colour it in.	Art Design your own Easter egg using exciting pattern, line and colour.
Create your own dictionary of words you find tricky to spell. Can you include a trick or rule to remember them? Use the 100 most commonly misspelled words as a starting point.	Journal Create a writing journal entry on a topic of your choice. Use colour coding (like the Editing Rainbow) to edit any errors or improvements. Aim for at least 300 words.	If you can access Hit The Button, use this website to practice quick fire mental calculations. https://www.topmarks.co.uk/maths-games/hit-the-button	Try a new skill. Something that you haven't had an opportunity to explore or something that a family member is talented/ experienced in. Evaluate your progress.	Topic Research the different aircrafts used by Britain during WW2. Can you sketch and label some of the different aircrafts? Write a fact file about one of the planes with facts, subheadings and images.

Primary 7 Home Learning Grid - Hot Hot Hot

Reading/ spelling	Writing	Maths	Health & wellbeing	Other areas
Complete a 'Three Sharings' poster on your novel. Comment on Likes/ dislikes, puzzles and connections. .	Functional – Research rationing recipes and create your own for a typical family meal during WW2. Include time connectives, imperative (bossy verbs), adverbs and appropriate detail.	Use a rationing recipe to record the weight of different ingredients required. Can you calculate the ingredients needed for a family of 6? Can you convert these to grams/ kilograms using appropriate decimals.	Make your own Kickstart circuit in your home and teach a family member how to take part. Lead a warm up, stations and cool down.	Science Experiment with floating and sinking objects. Make predictions about different objects/ materials. Note down your findings about each and write an evaluations to confirm or adjust your prediction.
Read or listen to a section of an audio book. Create a range of literal, inferential and evaluative questions. (6 of each). www.worldbook.kitaboo.com is now a free resource.	Personal Write a Postcard from a holiday or trip you've been on in the past. What were your highlights? How did you feel? What will you remember?	Design a board game that develops a maths skill. E.g negative numbers. . Design and create the parts needed for the game and play it with a family member.	Create a 'Care in the Sun' poster for a younger sibling or family friend. Give them hints and tips of how to be safe in the sun, including facts and statistics, text and images and persuasive techniques.	French Compare and contrast school life in France to school life in Scotland. Make a Venn diagram of differences and similarities. Create a concluding paragraph to evaluate your own thoughts about each.
Create a diary entry of a character from a text. Write in first person and include: thoughts, feelings, detailed recount of events in chronological order and appropriate description. Try to include some exciting writer's techniques like similes, metaphors and onomatopoeia.	Imaginative Create a poem about Spring. It can be acrostic, a sense poem, haiku or rhyming. Think about your favourite things about Spring. E.g daffodils, lambs, eggs, weather. Create at least 5 verses of your poem.	Can you research the number of planes British and German planes that were used during the Battle of Britain? E.g Hurricane, Spitfire, Luftwaffe, Messerschmit Bf 109. Can you create a comparative graph that shows the number of each type of plane? Use an appropriate scale key, labels and title. You could do this on paper or on an app e.g Numbers.	Practice mindfulness. Can you create your own mindfulness colouring sheet, or if you have a colouring book at home take some time to relax and colour it in.	Art Design your own Easter egg using exciting pattern, line and colour.
Create your own dictionary of words you find tricky to spell or new words to learn the spelling and definition of. Can you include a trick or rule to remember them?	Journal Create a writing journal entry on a topic of your choice. Use colour coding (like the Editing Rainbow) to edit any errors or improvements. Aim for at least 500 words.	If you can access Hit The Button, use this website to practice quick fire mental calculations. https://www.topmarks.co.uk/maths-games/hit-the-button	Try a new skill. Something that you haven't had an opportunity to explore or something that a family member is talented/ experienced in. Keep a diary of your progress and comment on your achievements and targets to improve.	Topic Research the different aircrafts used by Britain during WW2. Can you sketch and label some of the different aircrafts? Write a fact file about two of the planes with facts, subheadings and images.