School Week Consultation

Please come along and have your say at our community drop in about the proposal for changes to the structure of the school week, so that there are four slightly longer days and one day per week, that finishes at lunchtime.

Join us anytime between 4.30pm and 7pm at the Douglas-Ewart High School on Tuesday 27th August to hear more about the proposal and tell us your views. There will be information and staff available on the night and you will have the opportunity to fill in a survey.

A full list of drop sessions is available here: Consultation - School week structure - Dumfries and Galloway Council \(dumgal.gov.uk\) you are welcome to attend any of the drop-in sessions.

British Sign Language Interpreters will be available in person at the following sessions: Dumfries Academy and Kirkcudbright Academy sessions.
