11 Douglas-Ewart High School Young Ambassador Sign Up. S4-6 Pupils (2 allocated) The Young Ambassador Programme is a key element of sport Scotland’s contribution to developing young people as leaders in sport. The programme gives school-based young people aged 14-17 the opportunity to motivate and inspire other young people to participate in sport. The Young Ambassadors programme is run by sport Scotland and funded through the National Lottery. The Role of the Young Ambassador At the heart of the Young Ambassador programme is the principle that their views, and those of other young people are heard, valued and influence decision making; and that they are engaged in driving change. The key role of the Young Ambassador is to motivate and inspire other young people to participate in sport and physical activity. This involves inspiring pupils aged 5-18 to participate in PE, school sport, extracurricular activities, and local activity clubs. Young Ambassadors have a pivotal role within their school and wider community; they are advocates, role models and leaders of other young people. Young Ambassadors will be supported by their Active Schools and Community Sport Officer and their secondary school to achieve the aims below. The aims are split up into two areas, with examples given regarding how these aims can be fulfilled.	L. McCulloch	09.09.24

ImMerse Festival

ImMerse yourself in the Solway's Coastal Nature

Sunday 22nd September (from 10am)
Annan Harbour & surrounding merse

ImMerse is a brand new festival celebrating the South of Scotland's beautiful natural world and especially our precious merse and marine environment.

A fun filled day with guided walks and talks, saltmarsh school, water quality testing, countryside crafts, invertebrate investigations, saltmarsh science, eco films and discussions and much, much more.....!

This event is being brought to you by SCAMP (Solway Coast and Marine Project), Annan Harbour Action Group and the D&G Climate Hub.

FIND OUT MORE Eventbrite: DGCEEnvironmentteam
FB: @SolwayMarine

Our festival hub will be at Annan Harbour, with walks, talks and citizen science activities taking place at various river locations and out onto Annan's stunning saltmarsh (or merse).

Learn more about all the amazing things nature organisations do in our region and join them for some awesome creative/science/nature based learning activities, including;

Wood etching with D&G Woodlands

Woodcraft with Southern Upland Way ranger

Saltmarsh Science with Freelance ranger + saltmarsh expert

Up the Creek, walks with Galloway Fisheries Trust

Moth ID with SWSEIC

(South West Scotland Environmental Information Centre)

Birds on the Solway with RSPB

South of Scotland's Golden Eagle Project

Learn about Wild Woods from Borders Forest Trust

Get into Soil with Propagate

Litter picks with Annan Eco-Warriors + Annan Churches Together

Showing at Lonsdale Cinema at 6pm are "In Nature", a film created by young filmmakers from Annan, followed by "Why Not Scotland?" an inspiring film about nature restoration from across Europe

Our festival celebrates World Rivers Day and Earthwatch Europe's Great UK Water Blitz where people are invited to help measure the water quality of their local rivers and streams. With this data scientists can build a snapshot of our freshwater systems

Join our citizen science activities at ImMerse and play your part in the Great UK Water Blitz

Please note: There will be a bat box making workshop and evening Bat Walk with Species on the Edge on Saturday 21st September.

Our festival coincides with the Global Goals and the Scottish Governments Climate week

Looking forward to seeing you there...
