Dear Parents,

WORLD BOOK DAY: Friday 22 March 2019

Our Lady's would like to celebrate World Book Day in a different way this year. The children of our Rights Respecting Schools Committee want to move away from the pressure of costumes and spending lots of money because they feel the focus should be on books and reading.

For that reason, we are going to celebrate World Book Day on Friday 22nd March. Our theme is: 'Big Bedtime Read.'

In order to bring books and stories alive, we have arranged an author visit from Stuart Reid, Winner of the Enterprise in Education Award. During this visit the children will have the opportunity to take part in creative writing workshops and enjoy a book reading assembly.

We are asking all children to come to school in their pyjamas or onesies and bring along their favourite bedtime book. We ask that children bring a donation of £1 on the day - all money raised will be used to buy books for our school library. Our Rights Respecting Schools Committee would like to purchase a range of books suitable for all abilities, looking at topics such as global citizenship, cultural diversity and much more.

We would also ask that if you have any children's books in your home that you no longer use you would consider donating them to the school.

Thank you for your continued support.

The Rights Respecting Schools Committee and Mrs Wilkie
