LOW HILL NURSERY SCHOOL WHISTLEBLOWING POLICY SEPTEMBER 2018-19

Definition:

Whistleblowing is raising a concern about malpractice within an organisation.

Protection:

Low Hill Nursery School is committed to delivering a high quality curriculum and childcare provision, promoting organisational accountability and maintaining public confidence.

This policy provides individuals in the workplace with protection from victimisation or punishment where they raise a genuine concern about misconduct or malpractice in the organisation. The policy is underpinned by the Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998, which encourages people to raise concerns about misconduct or malpractice in the workplace, in order to promote good governance and accountability in the public interest. The Act covers behaviour, which amounts to:

- A criminal offence
- Failure to comply with any legal obligation
- A miscarriage of justice
- Danger to health and safety of an individual and/or environment
- Deliberate concealment of information about any of the above

It is not intended that this policy be a substitute for, or an alternative to Low Hill Nursery School formal Grievance Procedure, but is designed to nurture a culture of openness and transparency within our school, which makes it safe and acceptable for employees and volunteers to raise, in good faith, a concern they may have about misconduct or malpractice.

An employee or volunteer who, acting in good faith, wishes to raise such a concern should normally report the matter to the Headteacher who will advise the employee or volunteer of the action that will be taken in response to the concerns expressed. Concerns should be investigated and resolved as quickly as possible.

If an employee or volunteer feels the matter cannot be discussed with the Headteacher or line manager, he or she should contact our Early Years Team on 555992 or OFSTED on 0845 601 4772, or LADO on 01902 550661 for advice on what steps to follow.

A disclosure in good faith to the manager will be protected. Confidentiality will be maintained wherever possible and the employee or volunteer will not suffer any personal detriment as a result of raising any genuine concern about misconduct or malpractice within the organisation.

I confirm that I have read and agree to the above.
