

Modelling

Modelling occurs when you point to words on the AAC system as you speak, using the system to talk to the child or young person who is using AAC.

It is also referred to as 'aided language stimulation'. All AAC learners need to see what it looks like to communicate using their AAC system in real conversations.

Here are a few videos which demonstrate how to use modelling to support your children to use Augmentative and Alternative Communication (AAC) methods at home;

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fFNMky22-U>

<https://www.assistiveware.com/learn-aac/start-modeling>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=mXj1Btf0qFw>

<https://www.youtube.com/user/lotsacomptons>