Dear Parents/Guardians

Festival of Youth Concert - Order of St John
Friday 8 February, St Ninian's Cathedral, Perth, 7.30pm

The following bands have been invited to participate in the above concert:

Wind Orchestra – Mr Philip Alexander, Conductor
Guitar Ensemble – Mr Gordon Baillie, Conductor
Percussion Ensemble – Ms Lynsey Paterson, Conductor
Piping Ensemble – Mr Graham Mulholland, Conductor

Please accept my thanks for your assistance with this. This event is a high profile occasion and it is an excellent opportunity to show off the talent we have within our Music Service.

Pupils who normally travel to rehearsals by Central Group buses will be able to get on the bus at their usual pick-up point and time. The buses will drop off the children involved in this concert at St Ninian's Cathedral (either before or after dropping off pupils attending our other Friday night orchestra rehearsals at the North Inch Campus) therefore please ensure your child remains on the coach until it reaches St Ninian's Cathedral. Please note there is no pick up for the participating pupils as it is hoped parents will attend the concert.

All other pupils attending their weekly rehearsals in the North Inch Campus i.e. Wind Ensemble, Brass Band and Concert Band, will be taken to the North Inch Campus and picked up as usual at their relevant pick up/drop off times.

Pupils not travelling on Central Groups buses should arrive at St Ninian's Cathedral for 5.45pm for a rehearsal and seating arrangements.

Tickets are £5 per person and are will be available at the door on the night. There will also be a raffle during the evening.
