

Reading Resources for Closure

Follow Perth Academy Library on Twitter @PerthAcadLib where we will continue to post resources for pupils to use during the Easter holidays.

If any pupils would like to get in touch our e-mail address is perthacademylibrary@gmail.com

	David Walliams – audio elevenses	Stories from The World's Worst Children
	Toppsta book club – author events	@toppsta on Twitter
	Scottish Book Trust - Authors live video on demand by age and theme	Author videos - about 30 minutes each, filtered by age group
	Bookzilla App	Reviews and recommendations from Scottish Book Trust
	60,000 Free eBooks mostly published before 1924. Includes classics such as Anne of Green Gables, Jane Austen etc.	Free e-books - browse by using the Bookshelves feature.
	Audible stories – Hundreds of kids’ audiobooks for free.	www.audible.co.uk
	World Book Day UK	@WorldBookDayUK on Twitter
	National Geographic Kids digital resources	www.natgeokids.com
	Scottish Book Trust online freebies	#UnitedByBooks and #FreeBookResources on Twitter
	Picture book author events online Facebook group	Videos from authors and illustrators
	Authorfy – creative writing club resources	@authorfy or authorfy.com
	Culture Perth & Kinross Digital Library: Click here to join OR if you are already a Library member, click here to log in.	Free access to e-books, e-magazines, audio books and many reference sites including Britannica.
	The National Literacy Trust has just launched a Family Zone	Reading & writing ideas and activities
	Comixology.co.uk	Amazing website dedicated to comic books. Reviews include age-ratings so you can decide which are appropriate for your young’ uns. There are free comics to download under the Quick Links too.

	The National Library of Scotland provides access to a wide range of digital resources, including thousands of books, journals, newspapers and databases.	NLS is especially useful for senior pupils looking for credible, academic sources.
	For something a bit more fun, try Crash Course	YouTube channel with informative videos on a wide range of subjects. Everything from Othello to Engineering! Click on "Playlists" to filter videos by subject. Click here for their Literature 1 playlist as an example.